"THE CIRCLE GAME"

by Joni Mitchell

Yesterday a child came out to wonder, Caught a dragon fly inside a jar.
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder,
And tearful at the falling of a star.

And the seasons, they go 'round and 'round
And the painted ponies go up and down.
We're captive on the carousel of time.
We can't return, we can only look behind
From where we came and go 'round And 'round and 'round in the circle game.

Then the child moved ten times
'Round the seasons,
Skated over ten clear frozen streams.
Words like, "when you're older" Must appease him, and promises of Someday make his dreams.

Sixteen springs and sixteen summers Gone now. Cartwheels turn to carwheels Thru the town, And they tell him,
"Take your time; it won't be long now, Till you drag your feet to Slow the circles down."

So the years spin by
And now the boy is twenty.
Dreams have lost some grandeur,
Coming true, There'll be new dreams, Maybe better dreams, and plenty Before the last revolving year is through.

Sometimes we stumble to classes; sometimes we don't. Some of our instructors read our texts to us for fifty minutes, some talk for the allotted time, and some encourage us to think.

We arrive at some classes because attendance is sure to be taken. We know we can always write letters or daydream. If it's really all that bad we say "the hell with it" and thank God for our C's and D's - At least they're not F's.

Some instructors demand a lot of busywork. We may not care for it or see the point, but it always gets done - somehow.

Then there are those instructors who excite us. They are dynamic, showing us paths we may have missed or questions we failed to investigate. They lead us forth and we discover that above all we want to learn. They seem to know that we can teach them also. These instructors we salute with a sincere thank you.

IF you can keep your head when all about you Are losing theirs, and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowances for their doubting, too;
If you can wait and not be tired of waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating
And yet don't look too good nor talk too wise;
If you can dream and not make dreams your master,
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with triumph and disasters,
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken, Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watching the things you've given your life to, broken,
And stoop and build'em up with worn-out fools.
If you can make one heap out of all your winnings,
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve you long after they have gone . . .
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except will which says to them: "Hold on!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings--nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run, Yours is the earth and everything that's in it!

Lessons learned and lessons taught People loved and people hated Time goes by and slips away
Moments lost to memory Happy times and pretty days Hazy memories
make me smile Songs of love and rock and roll That left their tunes in corners of my mind Sad times and cloudy days
Misty moments of despair Leave their scars but hope remains People that I'll always love
Friends and lovers
good and bad Looking back on all of them
I'll always think of you

THE M&M SURVEY

An undergraduate student noted for her ability in mathematics has recently announced that the company which produces M&M candies (plain & peanut) is prejudiced in its color assortment of the little candies.

The announcement was made after the discoverer, Miss Anonymous, 22, carefully surveyed a package of M&M's (plain not peanut) and came to the conclusion that the color assortment was biased and unfair. According to Miss Anonymous, out of 57 candies, 23% were red, 12% orange, 19% yellow, 7% green, 7% tannish gold and 32% brown. The candies, incidentally, were purchased from a small red store in Newport. Miss Anonymous states that the yellow-green colors were clearly selected against and the browns were given special treatment.

Miss Anonymous and her loyal band of M&M Liberationists plan a demonstration later in the spring. As Miss Anonymous says "what's the use of saving the world if you can't help the little people along the way?" She was also quoted as saying that the demonstration in the spring will be entirely non-violent with the exception of the melting of a large 100 pound Brown M&M at the Mansion grounds of M&M multi-billionaire Milton Malt and his wife Cocoa in Hershey, Pa.

FRIENDSHIP IS...

Real friends are those who, when you've made a fool of yourself, don't feel that you've done a permanent job.

Friendship is to be purchased only by friendship.

A friend is a person with whom you dare to be yourself.

A friend is one who knows all about you and still likes you.

A friend is a present you give yourself.

Friends are made by many acts--and lost by only one.

A friend is one who comes to you when all others leave.

Symbols upon my hand
one finger holds a ring,
carved gold and silver memories.

twice turned the circle of the seasons, two years turned this circle amidst a group of people two years held within moments of evolution - unraveling of self, friend,
stranger
now found as symbols upon my hand, carved gold and silver memories.

At the beginning of the third revolution, when halfway still seemed like yesterdays' beginning, early autumn slowed the seasons' circles seasons' circles slowed the turning people.

turning people now captured in a gathering to celebrate,
to acknowledge,
to receive,
carved gold and silver memories.

Within the great hall gathered the people within early evening sun, settled early morning fog - misting question and confusion some have called Future from within the gathered people came futures' answers:

what is it all about, you ask?

It's about being students, craving knowledge
but stumbling with the learning;

It's about teachers, professors of their own work work soon to be our own profession

It's about books, printed education,
those pages already open, those yet to be turned

But it's also about reaching out beyond the printed pages - beyond the classroom, into a dimension of reality where chapters of life aren't assigned, but are written, are created.

Created by trying to study laugh

cry

party

dance

share

all sum up being young, while growing old; wanting everyone as friend, but not pleasing all as one.

building an island on an ocean, your earth to stand upon and water to drink from.

It's about reaching for a sunrise, a dawn without a sunset, then lifting the fog of Future, by daring to live for today.
but still you keep your dreams packed in a suitcase ready for some traveling.

But it's all mostly about a Ring worn already by our own experience our own seasons' circles, now evolving as symbols upon my hand

one finger holds a ring,
carved gold and silver memories.

Molly Curry.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career; however humble, it is a real profession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive of Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

Max Ehrmann
